Introduction

Hello! My name is Taylor Chang, and I'm a storyboard artist with years of experience in a variety of working environments and projects. My specialty is TV-style comedy, but I'm excited to work on any style of project. I've been on remote freelance gigs to full-time in-office studio jobs and worked with teams in both environments to deliver funny, impactful and solid boards. I'd love to work with you on your next production!
